(2) If it believes that any of the following matters will arise in a meeting or hearing held by it, a board or committee may order that the portion of the meeting during which the matter will arise be held in private:

(a) a matter concerning public security, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to seriously impair effective policing or law enforcement;

(b) a matter concerning a person's financial or personal affairs, if the person's interest in the matter outweighs the public's interest in the matter;

(c) a matter concerning labour contract discussions, labour management relations, layoffs or another personnel matter;
