Incident: 27th Annual Abbotsford Police 5k Challenge/Fun Run

Abbotsford – June 6th, 2017

The 27th Annual Abbotsford Police Challenge Run is being held on Saturday, June 10th at 9:00 a.m. to raise money for Special Olympics British Columbia. (SOBC)

Hundreds of runners, amateur joggers, and walkers from all over the Fraser Valley will converge at the Thunderbird Memorial Square (adjacent to the Abbotsford Police Department - 2838 Justice Way) to run, walk, and volunteer to raise money for this important charity.

The Abbotsford Police Challenge Run has raised over $400,000.00 for local charities since its inaugural event. The Run is driven by local volunteer efforts and the support of several local businesses.

"The Abbotsford Police are proud of the efforts by so many individuals to carry on this great tradition of running," said run coordinator Kelly Pater. "We're running hard to improve the quality of life in The Fraser Valley."

The Abbotsford Police Challenge will feature categories and prizes for all levels. Registrations are being accepted throughout this week and on race day. Visit www.abbypd.ca for more information.
