APD NEWS RELEASE:

APD FILE # 2018-10581

RELEASE # 2

DATE OF RELEASE: March 13, 2018

Incident: UPDATE: Three pedestrians struck in residential area

The Abbotsford Police General Investigation investigators continue speaking to witnesses and collecting CCTV to determine the causes for the incident.

A grandmother and her 2 young grandsons were transported to hospitals by BC Ambulance Service. The youngest, 2 years old, was released with minor injuries from hospital yesterday afternoon. The 5 year old child remains in hospital with a broken femur and under observation by medical practitioners. The grandmother remains in hospital in stable but serious condition.

Our thoughts remain with the family and we will continue to support them as a community.

We continue to request anyone that may have been in the area and have dashcam footage, or may have seen this incident to call the Abbotsford Police Department at 604-859-5225, to text APD at 222973 (abbypd) or to call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

Initial Release (March 12, 2018)

This morning at 8:17am, Abbotsford Emergency Services responded to a report of pedestrians struck by a Toyota Yaris on Ridgeview Drive, east of the intersection with Townline Road.

Emergency Services arrived on scene and located three injured pedestrians: a female in her mid 60s, and her two grandchildren, ages 2 and 5. The grandmother and 5 year old have been transported to hospital via air ambulance with serious injuries. The 2 year old has been transported to hospital by BC Ambulance Service with minor injuries.

The driver of the Toyota remained on scene and is cooperating with investigators.
