AbbyPD looks to reunite owners with their lost or stolen property

The Abbotsford Police Department wants to get recovered property back into the hands of its rightful owners!

AbbyPD will be posting photos and descriptions of recovered property on a variety of media platforms. To view recovered property, please visit:

- Web: <https://www.abbypd.ca/recovered-property>
- Facebook: AbbyPoliceDept – Photo Album: Recovered Stolen Property
- Instagram: AbbyPD Property

Citizens who wish to claim posted property as their own will be required to fill out a recovered property form.

Citizens are encouraged to keep records and photos of their property, including serial numbers or other identifying marks. Having this information will greatly assist in the return of property to you in the event it is lost or stolen. We suggest marking property with a name and phone number, or driver's license number, so police know who to contact in the event the property is recovered.
