

ABBOTSFORD
POLICE DEPARTMENT

STRENGTH IN COMMUNITY

UPDATE - AbbyPD asking for help locating missing teen with autism

January 26, 2021

1:36 pm

UPDATE - Thanks to BC Transit bus drivers who helped locate Nakota Hinksman – safe and sound! Thank you for your assistance!

Initial Release – January 26, 2021

AbbyPD are asking for the public's help in locating missing teen, Nakota HINKSMAN, 18, who went missing today at 3:20 am from the area of Marshall Road and Clearbrook Road.

Nakota is described as standing 5' 11 feet tall, heavy set, short dark hair, brown eyes, and wearing a dark-colour pullover sweater and red shorts.

Nakota is a very friendly young man who has autism and functions at a much lower age than his own. Please call 9-1-1 if you see Nakota.

2021-3551

Sgt Judy Bird

Abbotsford Police Media Relations Officer

askmedia@abbypd.ca