UPDATE – Stolen kittens located and returned home!

Over the past 24 hours, Abbotsford Police investigators have received an overwhelming number of tips and information relating to this theft. We are excited to announce that all five kittens have been located and returned to Mittens, their mother.

One of the kittens was brought in to the SPCA this afternoon, and the other four were tracked down and recovered by AbbyPD patrol officer, Cst Froese, and our Crime Reduction Unit.

This is an on-going investigation and details are limited. We will update when more information is available.
