AbbyPD Major Crime Detectives arrest suspect in home invasion

In the early morning hours of January 10, 2018, Abbotsford Police officers responded to a home invasion in the 2200 block of Windsor Street. Armed masked men broke into the home and tied up the residents, a man and his teenage son. Police believe this was a targeted robbery. Fortunately, the victims did not sustain physical injuries; however, they were emotionally impacted by this incident.

Abbotsford Police Major Crime Detectives conducted a complex and lengthy investigation, which spanned over two years. This investigation was a collaborative effort involving numerous RCMP detachments, members from the Combined Forces Special Enforcement Unit (CFSEU) and local municipal police agencies. The AbbyPD wishes to recognize the invaluable assistance provided by these law enforcement partners.

On Tuesday, June 1, 2021 Dylan Shane PELLY, 25 years-old, was arrested in connection to this home invasion. Detectives continue their investigation into the other suspects involved.

PELLY is facing numerous charges including:

- Break and enter a dwelling house- contrary to Section 348(1)(d) of the Criminal Code;
- Robbery- contrary to Section 344(1)(b) of the Criminal Code;
- Forcible Confinement x2- contrary to Section 279(2) of the Criminal Code;
- Commit an indictable offence with face masked- contrary to Section 351(2) of the Criminal Code;
- Use an imitation firearm while committing an indictable offence- contrary to Section 85(2) of the Criminal Code;
- Weapons Trafficking x3 – contrary to Section 99(1)(a) of the Criminal Code;
