NEWS RELEASE

APD NEWS RELEASE:

APD FILE # 2009-13871

RELEASE # 1

DATE OF RELEASE: April 23, 2009

Incident: Child Luring 2300 Block McCallum Road

Abbotsford – April 22, 2009.

On Wednesday, April 22 at 4 pm three young girls were in the area of the 2300 Block of McCallum Road when they were approached by a man who made suggestive comments to them. The girls fled to a convenience store with the man in pursuit. The man attempted to convince the girls to enter a washroom with him. The girls were able to get the attention of customers and staff and the man fled the area on foot.

The suspect description is a non-white male, 50-60 years, slim build, 5'8", with thinning salt and pepper coloured hair. The man did not speak with an accent. He was wearing a red baseball cap, a dark green ¾ length zippered jacket, dark coloured pants and white running shoes. The man was carrying a sports bag.

The Abbotsford Police Major Crime Unit, Forensic Identification Section and the Patrol Division are investigating the incident.

Anyone with information should contact Detective Chesley at 604-864-4708.
