DATE OF RELEASE: May 8, 2009

Incident: Missing Person with History Mental Health Problems

Abbotsford – May 8, 2009.

The Abbotsford Police Department are investigating a missing person, Charles KLOK, from the Mountain View Home in Abbotsford.

Charles KLOK was on an outing with a group of persons in the Mill Lake Park area of Abbotsford on this afternoon. He was last seen with the group at approximately 2 pm. The group was accompanied by 2 care workers from the Mountainview Home Psychiatric facility. Charles KLOK is a diagnosed paranoid schizophrenic and receives medication to control his condition. He was not reported missing until approx. 8 pm this evening. He has access to money but is believed to be on foot. He has been located as far away as Chilliwack in the past.

Charles KLOK was last wearing black jeans, a grey short sleeved shirt, navy blue jacket and white runners. He is 6 feet tall, about 200 lbs with brown hair, blue eyes and has a slight beard.

The public is being asked to be on the lookout for Mr. KLOK and if he is seen please advise the nearest police agency as quickly as possible.

Charles KLOCK photo is attached for distribution.
