Incident: Suspicious Circumstances Update

Abbotsford – August 18, 2009.

On August 10 at 5pm the Abbotsford Police attended the 33100 block of South Fraser Way in relation to the discovery of a garbage bag containing blood soaked clothing and bedding. The blood was fresh, and given the quantity of it, police were concerned about the welfare of the individual who suffered this blood loss.

The Abbotsford Police department received several calls regarding this incident and eventually was able to determine that the clothing belonged to a victim of an assault that took place outside an Abbotsford bar in the early morning hours of that same day. The victim has received treatment for his injuries, which were thankfully not life threatening.

We appreciate the assistance of the public and the media with this matter.
