Incident: Shots Fired on Hamon Drive

Abbotsford – September 10, 2009.

The Abbotsford Police Department was called to investigate a shots fired incident just before 5:00 am this morning. Several residents near Delair Road reported that they heard the sound of multiple gunshots in the area. Our Patrol Division conducted area patrols and located several shell casings near a residence in the 34700 block of Hamon Drive. Upon arrival these officers located a male attempting to leave the home. The male was immediately taken into custody. A search of the home for injured parties, weapons and potential suspects revealed that this home was being used as a marijuana grow operation. A firearm was not recovered on scene.

There was no indication that anyone was injured in the incident this morning. The Abbotsford Police Department's Forensic Identification Unit and Major Crime Unit have joined our Patrol Division in the investigation.
