Incident: APD Gang Suppression Unit executes warrant at residence associated to the Duhre Group

Abbotsford – January 26, 2011.

Yesterday at 4:45 pm the Abbotsford Police Department's Gang Suppression Unit, with the assistance of the APD Drug Enforcement Unit, the RCMP Lower Mainland Emergency Response Team and Chilliwack RCMP, executed a warrant at a residence in the 47000 block of Brewster Place in Chilliwack. This was regarded to be a high risk warrant and the contents of the residence proved that this assessment was accurate. Seized were 7 firearms, including an Uzi semi-automatic machine gun, prohibited high capacity magazines, an extendable metal baton, over 2400 rounds of ammunition, OxyCodone, Ecstasy, Heroin, Cocaine and thousands of dollars cash.

The home was vacant at the time of the warrant execution. However, at 6:00 pm a 32 year old man associated to the residence was stopped when he attempted to drive past. The man with numerous previous interactions with various Lower Mainland police agencies was arrested. Close to a pound of methamphetamine was located in the vehicle he was driving. The man is facing several weapons and drug charges.

The Gang Suppression Unit's investigation is continuing.
