Incident: Man Arrested for Shots Fired Incident at Apartment Complex

Abbotsford – June 13, 2010.

This afternoon at 3:45 pm the Abbotsford Police were called to an apartment complex in the 33600 block of Marshall Road for a report of shots fired. Callers informed police that a distraught man was in an upper floor hallway where he discharged a firearm, pulled the fire alarm and pointed the firearm at an occupant of the building.

Numerous Abbotsford Police officers attended the location along with the Municipal Integrated Emergency Response Team (MIERT). Occupants of the building were evacuated and the suspect was isolated to a suite in the complex. He was taken into custody at 5:45 pm when he attempted to leave that suite. A firearm was recovered by police. Fortunately none of residents of the building were injured.

The investigation of the incident is continuing, however, the 30 year old male suspect will be facing numerous charges.
