Incident: Abbotsford Police Support VPD Post Stanley Cup Final

Abbotsford – June 15, 2011.

This evening the Abbotsford Police Department encountered very few pedestrians or vehicles in the area of South Fraser Way as has been the case with previous losses by the Vancouver Canucks. The several hundred fans who attended the Abbotsford Entertainment and Sports Complex left in an orderly manner.

Part of the regional policing plan in relation to the Stanley Cup Playoffs included the sharing of resources and assisting where and when required. This evening the Abbotsford Police sent 50 officers into Vancouver to assist at the request of the Vancouver Police Department.
