Incident: Seniors' Independent Living Building Targeted by B&E

Abbotsford – July 7, 2011.

At 1:00 am on July 3, 2011 a suspect entered the underground parking garage of a seniors' independent living complex in the 2000 block of Primrose Street. The suspect removed the surveillance video camera. He then broke into storage lockers and stole personal items belonging to some of the residents. This same suspect and/or an accomplice then gained access to the wellness center and took two 22 inch televisions.

The theft of the video surveillance camera did not prevent the capture of images of the suspect. Attached are two still photos of him. He is described as a Caucasian male, 20-30 years of age with short or shaved hair and wearing a black hoodie.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Abbotsford Police Department at 604-859-5225 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
