RELEASE # 1

DATE OF RELEASE: July 11, 2011

Incident: Abbotsford Police Bike Squad – Project DingDong

Abbotsford – July 11, 2011.

On Friday, July 8, 2011 at 10:00 am the Abbotsford Police Bike Squad executed a warrant at an apartment in the 33331 block of Old Yale Road. The warrant was part of a larger project – Project DingDong - aimed at targeting “dial-a-dope” operations and drug dealers selling in the downtown core. With the assistance of Patrol Division and Municipal Integrated Emergency Response Team members, 4 persons were located and arrested in the suite along with quantities of drugs and cash. Charges of trafficking and possession for the purposes of trafficking are being pursued.

This project and much of the work of the Abbotsford Police Bike Squad is the direct result of the excellent relationship they have established with people in various parts of the city in general and the downtown core in particular. From dangerous “high potency” heroin to persons wanted on outstanding warrants for serious offences, the APD Bike Squad is often the first point of contact to this valuable public safety based information.
