DATE OF RELEASE: July 26, 2011

Incident: APD arrests Audrey BLACK for Breach of Conditions

Abbotsford – July 26, 2011.

On June 16, 2011 the Abbotsford Police Department issued a public notification concerning Audrey BLACK who was previously convicted of sexual offences and had elected to live in the city of Abbotsford. We asked citizens to be informed of her description and her release conditions which included not attending parks, playgrounds, swimming areas and other places persons under the age of 16 could reasonably expect to be present.

Yesterday afternoon a concerned citizen contacted Abbotsford Police after seeing a woman she thought was Audrey BLACK in the area of Mill Lake Park. Minutes later an Abbotsford Police Department Patrol Division officer located Audrey BLACK and arrested her in the same location that was provided by the caller.

Community involvement is an integral part of making the city safer. We commend the observations and actions of this citizen in assisting the APD in our efforts to make Abbotsford the safest city in British Columbia.
