Incident: Two Men Stabbed in Early Morning Fight

Abbotsford – September 30, 2011.

At approximately 2:30 am this morning two groups of people exited a restaurant in the 32700 block of Simon Avenue. There was a brief dispute involving members of each group and all persons involved left the area quickly after the altercation. Once inside their vehicle members of one group noticed that both a 19 year old and a 24 year old in their party were injured with suspected stab wounds. The group attended hospital for treatment and the Abbotsford Police Department was called.

Presently the Major Crime Unit, Abbotsford Police Patrol Division and members of the Forensic Identification Unit are investigating the incident.

Both men are reported to have suffered non-life threatening injuries, although the 19 year old man will require surgery for damage to an internal organ.

Anyone who witnessed this incident or who has any information about it should contact the Abbotsford Police at 604-859-5225 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
