Incident: APD Seek Public Assistance to Identify Robbery Suspects

Abbotsford – November 1, 2011.

Abbotsford Police Department Major Crime Unit detectives are investigating two gas station robberies that occurred in October. In both instances good quality surveillance video was obtained. The APD are releasing still images of the robbery suspects and requesting the assistance of the general public with the identification of the person involved in each incident.

On Thursday, October 6 at 10:00 pm a man entered a gas station in the 5100 block of Riverside Road. The man approached the transaction counter, brandished a long barreled handgun and demanded cash. The man fled, possibly jumping into a vehicle waiting nearby. The suspect is described as a Caucasian male, average height and build, 30-35 years of age with dark brown hair, a thin goatee and a skinny face. He was wearing a black hoodie, black pants and black sunglasses with a gold insignia on them.

On Wednesday, October 12 at 11:00 pm a man entered a gas station in the 1900 block of Sumas Way. The man displayed and gun and demanded cash. He also appeared to be having a conversation with someone during the robbery. In this instance the man suddenly fled prior to obtaining any money. The suspect is described as a Caucasian male, medium build and height, 20-30 years of age with brown hair and stubble on his face. He was wearing a black jacket with a dark coloured hoodie and black sunglasses.

If anyone has information about either of these incidents or can assist with the identification of the suspects, call Abbotsford Police at 604-859-5225 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
