Incident: Abbotsford Police Arrest Man, Officer Discharges Firearm

Abbotsford – November 4, 2011.

This morning at 10:00 am a uniformed member of the Abbotsford Police Department's Patrol Division had an interaction with a 34 year old man driving a grey Dodge pick-up truck and trailer in the 3400 block of Juniper Crescent. The officer recognized the driver from previous contacts.

As the vehicle raced away, the officer fired a single shot into the tire of the pick-up truck. The circumstances of the firearm discharge are being reviewed.

Abbotsford Police Patrol officers and Police Helicopter Air One then embarked on a search for the suspect and the vehicle. At 10:45 am the suspect was located in the area of Cassiar Avenue and McKee Road driving a red Ford Focus. Police stopped that vehicle and the suspect was taken into custody without further incident.

The grey Dodge pick-up truck was located off-road on Eagle Mountain. Police are continuing to investigate the ownership and background of that vehicle.
