DATE OF RELEASE: December 8, 2011

Incident: APD Major Crime Investigate Suspicious Incident at Bradner Rest Stop

Abbotsford – December 8, 2011.

On the evening of Thursday, December 1, 2011 a 37 year old woman from Langley attended the Central City Brew Pub in Surrey. She consumed some drinks and left the establishment around 9:00 pm.

On Friday, December 2 at 8:00 am she woke up on the grassy portion of the Bradner Rest Stop on the north side of Highway #1, West of Mt. Lehman Road. The woman's clothing was disheveled and she was missing jewelry, electronics and identification. She began walking westbound and then hitch-hiked home. There she contacted Langley RCMP and in the hours that followed, the Abbotsford Police and Surrey RCMP became involved in the investigation.

The incident is now being lead by the Major Crime Unit of the Abbotsford Police Department. Detectives are interested in speaking with witnesses who may have had contact or observed this woman at the pub, at the rest stop or anywhere in between.

The woman is Caucasian, 5'6" tall, 125 pounds and has long light brown hair. She was wearing burgundy coloured pants with a green stripe and an army style jacket.

Anyone with information is requested to contact the Abbotsford Police at 604-859-5225 or Crime Stoppers 1-800-222-8477.
