Incident: Update - Body Discovered in Field on Farmer Road

Abbotsford – February 19, 2012.

The Integrated Homicide Investigation Team (IHIT) will be assuming responsibility for this investigation.

Initial News Release:

This morning at 9:20 am a motorist was travelling in the 33600 block of Farmer Road when he observed what appeared to be a body in a field. The man immediately called Abbotsford Police and remained on scene while Patrol Division officers were dispatched. Upon arrival, Abbotsford Police confirmed that the body was of a deceased adult male.

Abbotsford Police Forensic Identification Unit members and Major Crime detectives are now also involved in the investigation. A positive identification has not yet been made of the man and currently there has been no determination of the cause of death.

Abbotsford Police will provide updates when more information becomes available.
