DATE OF RELEASE: March 1, 2012

Incident: Jon Eaton named President of the BC Association of Police Boards

Abbotsford – March 1, 2012.

Jon Eaton, a member of the Abbotsford Police Board since 2008, was appointed President of the British Columbia Association of Police Boards (BCAPB) this week at the 2012 conference and annual general meeting which was hosted in Saanich.

The BCAPB is an organization that advocates for the effective governance of municipal police departments.

Jon has an extensive background in business, financial and investment management experience. He also has made considerable contributions to the city of Abbotsford through his involvement with the Police Board and with the Abbotsford Minor Hockey Association. Police Board representatives are not paid. They volunteer their time and efforts for the benefit of their communities. Jon has exemplified this commitment during his tenure to date and will undoubtedly continue to do so.

The Abbotsford Police Department, Mayor Banman and Police Board Members - Deborah Lehmann, Bruce Nicholson, Sukh Sidhu, Karen Matty and Mike McWhinney all wish to congratulate Jon on this tremendous achievement.

Congratulations President Eaton!
