Incident: Update to Missing Person – Tarsem JALPAT

Abbotsford – April 25, 2012.

At 8:15 am this morning, Tarsem JALPAT was located. He is in good health. The Abbotsford Police wish to thank all who assisted in the search for this missing man. Special thanks to Central Fraser Valley Search and Rescue for their efforts.

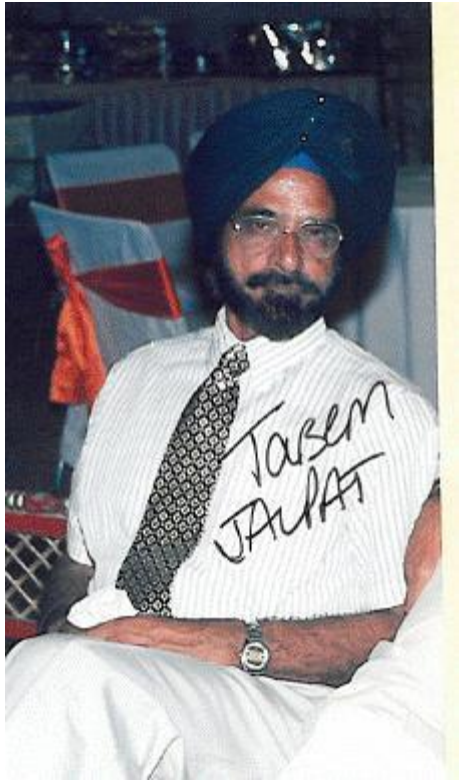

Initial News Release Below:

The Abbotsford Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating a missing 65 year old man. Tarsem JALPAT was last seen at his residence on Evergreen Street last night at 8:30 pm. Mr. JALPAT went out for his usual evening walk and never returned. Family searched for Mr. JALPAT and called police when efforts to locate him were unsuccessful. Tarsem JALPAT is relatively new to Canada and he does not speak English. He walks with a limp and is described as a South Asian male, 5'9", 170 lbs, black hair and black eyes, full beard and moustache. Mr. JALPAT was last seen wearing a brown toque, white pants and white shirt underneath a black hooded jacket. (Photo of JALPAT attached.)

At dawn this morning Search and Rescue members began assisting APD officers in the search.

Anyone with information about Tarsem JALPAT's whereabouts should contact the Abbotsford Police at 604-859-5225
