Incident: Man Charged with Counselling to Commit Suicide

Abbotsford – October 1, 2012

Late last week Abbotsford Police Department's Major Crime detectives and Patrol Division officers began investigating an incident that left an Abbotsford woman injured with apparent ligature marks on her neck. The woman in her 40's, who is known to suffer from depression, was brought to police by a family member. As the result of the police investigation and the execution of a search warrant, 53 year old Kenneth William CARR has been charged with Counselling to Commit Suicide.

The investigation is troubling, not only because of the circumstances of this incident, but also because this may not have been the only time CARR has engaged in this type of criminal behaviour. Abbotsford Police investigators cannot preclude the possibility that there are others who were counselled but did not report the incident to police. For that reason, we are appealing to anyone with information about similar events or other relevant information concerning Kenneth William CARR to contact us at 604-859-5225.
