Incident: Update - Missing Person – Sayed Mohsin SHAH

Abbotsford – November 20, 2012.

At 7:30 am the Abbotsford Police Department received a 911 call from a male indicating he was Mohsin SHAH. The caller provided his location and several APD Patrol units attended the area of # 3 Road and South Parallel Road. We have confirmed that the lone person on scene is SHAH. Our investigators are endeavouring to determine exactly what happened to him. We will provide updates as more information becomes available. For now we are grateful that SHAH is safe.

News Release from 5:00 am this morning:

Last night at 7:00 pm Mohsin SHAH drove away from his home in the Blueridge Drive area of Abbotsford in a grey Acura SUV. A few minutes later he made a panicked phone call to a friend indicating he was in trouble and that his family and police must be called. The phone conversation was cut off and attempts to re-contact SHAH have failed. The friend did call police and SHAH's family.

Mohsin SHAH was supposed to be attending a meeting at an Abbotsford hotel last evening. He did not show up at that location.

SHAH is 18 years of age and is of Pakistani descent. He is 5'5" tall with short black hair and a full moustache and beard. He was last seen wearing a black hoodie, a grey t-shirt and jeans. (Photo attached)

SHAH was driving a grey 2005 Acura MDX bearing license plate 986 XKN. (Similar vehicle photo attached)

Anyone with information concerning the whereabouts of Mohsin SHAH should call the Abbotsford Police Department at 604-859-5225.
