DATE OF RELEASE: January 14, 2013

Incident: Chad WEBER Wanted for Robbery, Forcible Confinement and Kidnapping

Abbotsford – January 14, 2013.

The Abbotsford Police Department is actively seeking to locate 35 year old Chadwyn (Chad) Marcus WEBER. In April of 2012 the APD issued a Public Safety Warning concerning WEBER. On July 23, 2012 WEBER was arrested by Abbotsford Police as a result of his involvement in an incident where a 28 year old man was assaulted, threatened, forced from his vehicle and robbed.

Currently, WEBER is at large and wanted for robbery, forcible confinement and kidnapping. He continues to be a public safety concern for the citizens of Abbotsford and elsewhere and therefore should not be approached. If you observe WEBER, contact your local police immediately. If you have information concerning his whereabouts, contact the Abbotsford Police at 604-859-5225 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

WEBER is 6'1" (185cms) tall and weighs 220 pounds (100 kgs). He has green eyes and short brown hair (photo attached).

News Release of July 25, 2012:

On Monday, July 23 at 5:35 pm Abbotsford Police were called to the 1900 block of Catalina Crescent to investigate a robbery. A 28 year old man had been forced from his vehicle and assaulted by a group of men. The victim suffered non-life threatening injuries to his head that required medical treatment. The men took cash, electronics and jewelry from him. The victim was familiar with some in the group of assailants including 35 year old Chadwyn Marcus WEBER.

Officers began interviewing witnesses, gathering evidence and looking for the men who perpetrated the robbery. Abbotsford Police Patrol Division, Gang Suppression Unit, Drug Enforcement Unit and Municipal Integrated Emergency Response Team members located and arrested WEBER in a vehicle stop on Mt. Lehman Road at 11:00 pm – just over five hours after the incident.

Chadwyn WEBER is charged with robbery and forcible confinement. He was the subject of an April 19, 2012 Public Safety Warning issued by the Abbotsford Police Department. The focus of that warning was to inform those who might come in contact with WEBER that they could be at risk through their association with him or by being in close physical proximity to him.

Just after 12:00 noon on Tuesday, July 24 Lewis KIM, a 35 year old associate of Chad WEBER was also arrested by Abbotsford Police in connection with this incident. KIM appeared in court today and has been charged with robbery, uttering threats and forcible confinement.
