Incident: Break and Enter – 3 Dogs Stolen

Abbotsford – January 24, 2013

Last night at 7:20 pm the Abbotsford Police received a report of a Break and Enter from a residence in the 33300 block of Westbury Avenue. Despite the presence of other valuables in the home, the only property taken was two puppies and a four year old dog. The homeowner had recently advertised the puppies for sale on an on-line site. The owner had only been out of the residence for brief period before the discovery of the theft which indicates that this was a targeted incident.

Attached are photos of the dogs. The adult is a Yorkie and the puppies are "Morkies" which are Yorkie and Maltese cross.

Anyone with information concerning the whereabouts of these dogs or about the break and enter incident should call Abbotsford Police at 604-859-5225 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
