Incident: Abbotsford Police Seize 60 Kilograms of Cocaine

Abbotsford – February 4, 2013

On Saturday, February 2 at 07:45 am Abbotsford Police Patrol Division officers located a man with two medium-sized duffle bags in a parking lot in the 2000 block of Clearbrook Road. The man was unable to provide many answers concerning the padlocked bags. A search of those bags revealed numerous packaged bricks of what is suspected to be approximately 60 kilograms of cocaine (photo attached).

The 24 year old man was arrested for Possession for the Purposes of Trafficking. The Abbotsford Police Department's Patrol Division, Drug Enforcement Unit and Gang Suppression Unit are continuing the investigation. This represents the largest cocaine seizure in the department's history.
