Incident: APD and IHIT Investigate Homicide on Cassiar Court

Abbotsford – February 7, 2013

On Wednesday, February 6 at 7:30 pm the Abbotsford Police Department were dispatched to a home in the 34800 block of Cassiar Court. A family member had asked police to check on the wellbeing of a female resident. Attending Patrol Division officers located that 40 year old female deceased inside the residence. She had been the apparent victim of a homicide. A 40 year old male present at the home was taken into custody.

The investigation is in its early stages with APD Major Crime Unit detectives, Forensic Identification Unit officers and members of the Integrated Homicide Investigation Team now involved.

This incident represents a tragic loss of life and we wish to extend condolences to friends and family of the victim.

Cst. Ian MacDonald will be on scene and available to media at 11:00 am this morning. After 12:00 noon today all subsequent media will be handled by Cpl. Adam MacIntosh of IHIT. He can be reached at 604-991-0074.
