Incident: Witnesses Sought for Serious Assault at Pub

Abbotsford – June 1, 2013

Just after midnight this morning two 20 year old men became involved in an argument in the Duke of Dublin Pub located in the 33700 block of South Fraser Way. One man attacked the other with a beer bottle causing multiple injuries to the victim which required medical treatment in hospital. The Abbotsford Police Department's Patrol Division is investigating and seeking witnesses and information. The victim suffered lacerations to his back, neck and head as a result of the assault. The suspect left the establishment prior to police arrival and the search for him is continuing.

Anyone with information about this incident should call the APD at 604-859-5225 or text 222973 (abbypd).
