Abbotsford – February 3, 2014

Last night at 10:50 pm the Abbotsford Police were called to a motel in the 1800 block of Sumas Way. Staff indicated that three suspects entered the lobby area minutes earlier with their faces covered and demanding cash. One of the suspects produced a handgun. It is believed that the trio of suspects consisted of two males and one female, and that all were Caucasian. They took a purse from a female employee and a wallet from a male employee, as well as cash from the business. All of the suspects were wearing a combination of hoodies and scarves to cover their faces and heads. They quickly fled the business on foot after obtaining the money.
