Incident: APD Arrest 3 People after Bradner Road Convenience Store Robbery

Abbotsford – June 23, 2014

On Thursday, June 19, 2014 at 7:35 pm Abbotsford Police Patrol Division officers were called to a convenience store in the 5400 block of Bradner Road for a report of a robbery that had just occurred. At that location, two men confronted the 66 year old store manager and stole cash, lottery tickets and cigarettes. One of the men was brandishing a knife. The suspects fled from the area in a white sedan.

APD officers arrived on scene and began searching for the vehicle and suspects. Eventually the suspect vehicle was located near 264th Street in Langley. Subsequent investigation and tracking resulted in the arrest of two men and one woman. 30 year old James Russell FRASER and 22 year old Jesse Kaj Thomsen have now been charged with Robbery, and 30 year old Leah Renee DAN has been charged with Possession of Stolen Property.

The Abbotsford Police Department was able to make these quick arrests as a result of excellent assistance from witnesses and the Langley RCMP.
