Incident: Operation Resolution 2014 – APD Holiday Greeting Card

Abbotsford – December 10, 2014

For the third consecutive year, the Abbotsford Police Department is sending Christmas cards to a designated group of individuals in the city who have made poor choices which have negatively impacted themselves and the community. This year the imagery is starker but the theme is hopeful and centers on making positive choices. As with previous years, the APD is making available a Help Line to assist those who are struggling with those decisions: – 604-864-4777. This number is available to anyone, not just recipients of the cards.

*Where will you be spending the holidays
this season?*

*We hope it is with
your family,
not with us.*

This year the Christmas cards will be sent to youth in Abbotsford who have previously made poor decisions. We want to encourage them to make better choices and for them to know that they have the ability to pick a constructive, rather than destructive, life path. "You are always only one choice away from changing your life." – Mary Blochowiak
