Incident: Update to Missing Person – Nara LIM

Abbotsford – May 1, 2015

This morning Nara LIM was located in Vancouver by The Metro Vancouver Transit Police. She was in good health and has now been returned to Abbotsford. The Abbotsford Police Department would like to thank the Transit Police and the many others who assisted with this investigation.

Initial Release of April 30, 2015:

On Tuesday, April 28, 2015 the Abbotsford Police Department was contacted regarding 15-year-old Nara LIM who was reported missing from her residence in central Abbotsford. LIM was last seen in person by friends and family at the conclusion of her shift at a restaurant on South Fraser Way on Saturday, April 25, 2015. There has been contact with LIM via social media and she has been observed on surveillance video making cash withdrawals from bank ATMs in Abbotsford and Vancouver. However, police and family are very concerned about her and want her to return home.

Nara LIM is 5'7" and 120 pounds. She has dyed blonde hair and wears glasses. She was last seen wearing a black "Seattle Seahawks" sweater and dark coloured pants. (See photos)
