Incident: Two Bank Robberies in Two Days

Abbotsford – May 8, 2015

On Tuesday, May 5, 2015 at 6:00 pm the Abbotsford Police Department was called to a robbery at a bank in the 32400 block of South Fraser Way. A male suspect had entered the branch, waited in line and approached a teller. He produced a note demanding cash and implied that he had a weapon. The suspect was wearing a baseball cap and glasses (see photos).

On Thursday, May 07, 2015 at 1:10 pm the APD was called to a bank in the 32000 block of South Fraser Way for another reported robbery. A male suspect wearing sunglasses and a baseball cap entered (see photos). The suspect gave a teller a note demanding cash and showed a weapon in his waistband.

The suspects in both robberies are described as being Caucasian men in their 30's with medium builds and standing 5'10" to 6'0" tall.

The Abbotsford Police Department is asking all financial institutions to be aware of these recent incidents and to review security protocols with staff. All suspicious activity in and around banks should be reported immediately to the APD.

Anyone with information about these robberies is asked to contact the APD at 604-859-5225, text us at 222973 (abbypd) or call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
