Abbotsford Police Board NEWS RELEASE:

DATE OF RELEASE: June 15, 2015

Incident: Contract Extension for Chief Constable Bob Rich

Abbotsford – June 15, 2015

On behalf of the Abbotsford Police Board, I am pleased to announce that Chief Rich’s contract has been extended for an additional three year term until December 2018.

Bob Rich became Chief of the APD in July 2008 when he signed a five year contract, which was extended in 2011 to December 2015.

“Chief Rich’s unwavering leadership, his commitment and attention to making Abbotsford the safest city in BC, and his solid character and ethics is a significant contribution to our Department and our City. His ongoing service is appreciated and we look forward to working together to make our City a safer community” said Mayor Braun

“The Abbotsford Police Department is one of the finest Departments in Canada. I am honoured to be asked to continue leading the men and women who are working to keep Abbotsford safe. I appreciate the Police Board’s continued support of both myself and the entire APD,” said Chief Rich.
