APD NEWS RELEASE:

APD FILE # 15-24813

RELEASE # 1

DATE OF RELEASE: June 26, 2015

Incident: Home Invasion on Robson Drive

Abbotsford – June 26, 2015

On Friday, June 26, 2015 at 7:30 am the Abbotsford Police Department was called to a home invasion at a residence in the 3600 block of Robson Drive. Earlier, a 62 year old woman briefly exited her home to take out some garbage when she was confronted by two masked suspects. They forced her back inside the home and restrained her while making demands for cash. Two additional suspects arrived on scene and much of the home was ransacked. According to the victim, the suspects were all male and they were armed.

The suspects eventually left the residence and the victim was able to free herself and call police. She was transported to hospital for treatment of non-life threatening injuries.

Abbotsford Police Department Patrol Division officers, Forensic Identification Unit members and Major Crime Unit detectives are investigating this home invasion robbery. Investigators are looking to speak to anyone who observed any suspicious persons, vehicles or activities in the area. Witnesses indicated that a brown Chrysler sedan was observed in the area and near the home in the past few weeks.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the APD at 604-859-5225, text us at 222973 (abbypd) or call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
