Incident: Subway Restaurant Robbed Twice

Abbotsford – August 5, 2015

On Tuesday, July 28, 2015, at 9:45 pm, the Abbotsford Police Department was called to a robbery at Subway restaurant in the 1900 block of McCallum Road. A male suspect entered the restaurant with a large duffle bag and a handgun. He demanded cash from one of the three employees in the business and exited through a rear door.

The suspect was described as a tanned male, approximately 5'8" tall, wearing a face covering or balaclava and a black hoodie with a large "Adidas" logo and white stripes. He was also wearing a distinctive bracelet on his left wrist (see photos). Garments appear blue on the security video still images but are actually black.
