DATE OF RELEASE: August 6, 2015

Incident: Missing Persons – Robert & Martha MACKAY

Abbotsford – August 6, 2015

The Abbotsford Police Department is currently attempting to locate a missing couple, Robert and Martha MACKAY. They were reported missing on Thursday, August 6, 2015, at 3:15 pm. They had walked away from their family residence near Clearbrook Road and South Fraser Way around 1:00 pm on that date. Both Robert and Martha are in their 80s and may be confused. APD officers have been actively searching for them since receiving the report but to this point they have not been located nor made contact with their family.

*Our Mission:
To make Abbotsford the safest city in B.C.*

Robert MACKAY is a Caucasian male who stands 5'10" tall with a slim build. He has short grey hair and does not have teeth nor dentures. He was last observed wearing a black coat, grey sweater, plaid shirt and blue jeans.

Martha MACKAY is a Caucasian female who stands 5'4" tall with a slim build. She has brown hair, usually in a ponytail. She was last observed wearing a blue jacket, light-coloured pants and a blouse with embroidery around the collar.

Anyone with information about the MACKAYs should call the Abbotsford Police Department at 604-859-5225 or text APD at 222973 (abbypd). Anyone observing the MACKAYs should call 911.
