Incident: Serious Head-On Collision on Old Yale Road near St. Moritz Way

Abbotsford – September 14, 2015

On Sunday, September 13, 2015 at 11:20 pm, the Abbotsford Police Department received calls reporting a two-vehicle crash on Old Yale Road near St. Moritz Way. When emergency personnel arrived on scene, they located a 21-year-old female driver trapped in a red Dodge sedan and a 53-year-old male in an overturned grey Dodge pickup truck.

The female driver was eventually extracted from her vehicle but, due to her level of injury, she was transported to hospital via air ambulance. The male driver was transported via ground ambulance suffering from non-life threatening injuries. He demonstrated signs of impairment by alcohol and police are proceeding with an impaired investigation.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the female driver and her family.
