Incident: Vishal BAJAJ Charged with Drug Trafficking

Abbotsford – September 10, 2015

On Tuesday, September 8, 2015 at 8:00 pm the Abbotsford Police Department's Emergency Response Team and Gang and Drug Unit executed a warrant at a residence in the 30700 block of Sandpiper Drive. 26-year-old Vishal BAJAJ was arrested on scene. APD members seized cash, cocaine, crack cocaine, heroin, and methamphetamine from the home.

BAJAJ has been charged with 3 counts of Possession for the Purposes of Trafficking (cocaine, heroin and methamphetamine). He is facing identical charges from a May 13, 2015 incident where he was arrested in a vehicle in the area of Upper Maclure Road and Mallard Street.

BAJAJ is now under court ordered conditions that require he adhere to a residence curfew between 10:00 pm and 6:00 am. He also is forbidden from possessing weapons, alcohol, drugs and cellphones. Anyone observing BAJAJ in breach of these conditions should contact the Abbotsford Police at 604-859-5225 or via text 222973 (abbypd).

The Abbotsford Police Department has identified BAJAJ as an individual involved in the ongoing conflict in the Townline Hill area. He was specifically targeted by Gang and Drug Unit investigators because of this involvement. APD enforcement efforts relating to this conflict will be continuing.
