Incident: APD Deploys More Cameras on Townline Hill

Abbotsford – October 9, 2015

To address the continuing public safety concerns related to the Townline Hill Conflict, the Abbotsford Police Department has deployed additional cameras into the area. Signs have been posted advising people that many public areas on Townline Hill are now under video surveillance (see photos). The APD has received overwhelming support for the installation of additional cameras through discussions at public meetings and from direct communication with citizens in the neighbourhood.

We continue to encourage citizens to report suspicious activity through the use of our 911 lines, non-emergency lines (604-859-5225) and live non-emergency two-way text option 222973 (abbypd).

People with information about gang activity and other criminal behaviour should call Crime Stoppers 1-800-222-8477 or the APD Tip Line at 604-864-4777. Both Crime Stoppers and our Tip Line allow callers to provide information anonymously.
