DATE OF RELEASE: November 9th, 2015

Incident: Scooter Stolen from Local Veteran

Abbotsford – November 9th, 2015

On November 6th 2015, the Abbotsford Police Department was contacted by the Abbotsford Legion reporting that one of their members, an 83 year old Veteran, had his scooter stolen from outside the Legion sometime Friday morning.

The victim of the theft reports speaking to a male just prior to the theft. This man showed interest in his scooter, going as far as offering to fix a broken headlight on the unit. This male identified himself as "Kevin" who is described as a Caucasian male, 40's, 5'8", average build with short brown hair. The stolen scooter is described as a Pride Scooter, red in color with a roof, windshield, and a black basket attached to the front. (Photo attached not actual scooter but similar)

At this time police are seeking witnesses to this theft and are asking the public to help identify Kevin. Anyone with information about this theft should call the Abbotsford Police Department at 604-859-5225 or text APD at 222973 (abbypd) or call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477
