Incident: Three Robberies In Less Than Ten Hours

Abbotsford – November 12th, 2015

On Tuesday, November 10th, at 2:15 pm, a robbery occurred at a local business located in the 2600 block of Gladys Ave. Two hours later, at 4:30 pm, a second robbery occurred at a restaurant located in the 31200 block of Maclure Rd. Later that evening, at 11:16 pm, a third robbery occurred again at a restaurant located in the 31900 block of South Fraser Way.

Given the similarities in the descriptions of the suspects, the nature of the incidents and the proximity in time and location of the robberies, the APD believes them to be connected and to have been committed by the same suspect. He is described as a Caucasian male in his 30's, 5'6" to 5'10", average build, wearing dark clothing. Through investigation, Major Crime Detectives have determined that the suspect may have entered into one of the businesses 24 hours prior to the robberies. Police are releasing his photo and are asking the public's assistance in identifying this man. (See attached photos of suspect and CCTV footage)

In light of these incidents, we are advising businesses to be vigilant with their security.
