RELEASE # 1

DATE OF RELEASE: July 25, 2016

Incident: Serious Collision between Car and Motorcycle

Abbotsford – July 25, 2016

On Sunday, July 24, 2016 at 9:00 pm, the Abbotsford Police Department responded to a collision in the 2300 block of West Railway Street. At this location, a northbound Honda Accord driven by a 22-year-old man crashed into a southbound Honda motorcycle driven by a 56-year-old man. The motorcycle rider suffered significant injuries and was transported to hospital. He remains in serious condition. The driver of the Accord and his passengers have cooperated fully with the police investigation.

APD Collision Reconstructionists and Patrol Division officers continue to investigate this collision.

Any witnesses to the crash who have not been interviewed by police are asked to contact us at 604-859-5225 or text us at 222973 (abbypd).
