Incident: Abbotsford Police Community Survey

Abbotsford – September 12, 2016

On Monday, September 12, 2016, the Abbotsford Police Department launched an online community survey to canvass citizens on their opinions about community safety and the appropriate priorities for the police department.

The responses to the short survey are completely confidential and accessing it is as easy as following the links on the www.abbypd.ca webpage. There are both English and Punjabi versions of the survey available and people can provide their input until October 14, 2016. In addition, the APD will be conducting a series of community consultation sessions at various locations in the city to ensure we engage citizens in person.

Watch this brief video of Chief Bob Rich encouraging participation in the survey:

The results of the survey will be shared with the public in early 2017 and the feedback will help to guide the 2017 Strategic Plan for the Abbotsford Police Department.

This is your community, the APD is your police department and we want to know what matters to you.
