APD FILE #   16-37209   RELEASE   # 2

DATE OF RELEASE: September 12, 2016

Incident: Update to Deceased Male

Abbotsford – September 12, 2016

Abbotsford Police Department investigators are providing an update to the investigation into the death of the 47-year-old man who was located in an outbuilding at a rural property.   As a result of an autopsy and other evidence, the death is no longer considered suspicious. The APD offers sincere condolences to the family and friends of this man.

Initial Release of September 7:

On Wednesday, September 7, 2016 at 10:40 am, the Abbotsford Police Department received a report of a deceased male in an outbuilding of a rural property in the 35000 block of Fore Road.

APD Patrol Division officers and Major Crime Unit detectives arrived on scene. The initial indications suggested the death to be suspicious in nature and the Integrated Homicide Investigation Team (IHIT) was contacted.

APD investigators will be working with the coroner and will continue to consult with IHIT until a cause of death is determined.
