Public and Media Advisory

Event: Fentanyl Public Forum

Date of Advisory – October 25, 2016

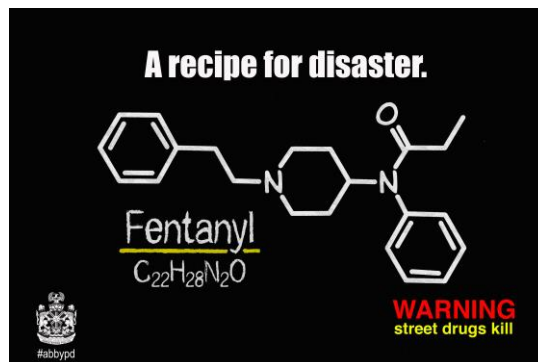

On Thursday, October 27, 2016, from 7-9pm a panel of experts will be speaking on the growing problem of Fentanyl that is facing the city of Abbotsford. The forum will take place at the MCA Auditorium at City Hall – 32315 South Fraser Way. The presenters will include representatives from the Abbotsford Police Department, Fraser Health Authority and a clinical specialist in mental health and substance abuse.

One of the presenters, Deputy Chief Mike Serr of the APD will be responding to questions on Twitter before and during the presentation @DeputySerrAPD

This is a very important information session and we hope for a strong turnout from the public and the media. The forum is suitable for persons aged 13 and older.

Time: 7-9pm

Place: MCA Auditorium – 32315 South Fraser Way

Our Mission:
To make Abbotsford the safest city in B.C.
