Incident: Child Luring Charge against Jason Alan OBERT

Abbotsford – November 25, 2016

On Friday, October 21, 2016, the Abbotsford Police Department became aware of a video posted by Fraser Valley Creep Catchers which purported to depict a confrontation between a man and members of Fraser Valley Creep Catchers in the food court of an Abbotsford shopping mall. On October 24, 2016, APD investigators met with a representative of that organization, took possession of the video and other materials and began an investigation. This culminated in a report to Crown Counsel with the recommendation of charges.

Today, 37-year-old Jason Alan OBERT was charged with Child Luring. He has been released with the following court-ordered conditions:

- Not to communicate with or be alone in the presence of anyone under 18 years of age except his children or when in the company of an approved adult. He may have incidental contact with persons under the age of 18 years in a public place, and, in those circumstances, he may not engage them in conversation unless they are in the course of their employment in a retail or service industry setting, and then the conversation must only relate to the goods or services being provided by them.
